Bloomfield Auxiliary Society.

ANNUAL REPORT.

Dear President and Friends:

Another twelfth month in its rapid flight has brought us to our Anniversary, and in presenting this, the thirty-seventh annual report of the Bloomfield Auxiliary Society of the Newark Orphan Asylum Association it may seem to some, that for the number of years we have been an organization, but a limited amount of good has been accomplished. The work has gone on from year to year in a quiet and unostentatious manner, without any show, but with an earnest zeal which has in the eyes of the Master, proved not, been well pleasing, and He has prospered our efforts. During these years 30 or more children have been provided with a Christian home in the Newark Asylum, and a Home it really is, where every influence is on the side of Christianity, and kindness and love reign supreme. One has but to look upon the happy smiling faces of the little ones to know they are well and happy. Of this number some have been called from their earthly to their heavenly home, a large number have been adopted in families, or left the institution as the time for their stay has expired, and we have at present but three left in the Asylum, the children of William Senior, Fernando Wood, John Howard and Katie L. Senior, all of whom are in good health and much improved in manners and general deportment since they have been under our care.

Our work during the past year has not been signalized by any special efforts. The children from the Newark Asylum, 70 in number, together with their matrons, teachers and friends, were given their annual picnic at Pleasant Grove on the 17th of June. It was an occasion which will long be remembered by the little ones. It is a bright spot in their lives, and a time to which they look forward from year to year. The children were also very kindly remembered at Christmas. Through the efforts of our worthy list of rectresses, Mrs. R. N. Dodd, a very nice box was prepared for them, filled with turkeys, meats, fruits, cakes, pies, etc., which were the gift of a few friends, also a donation of money from our managers. A visit of a few of the managers to the Asylum on Friday the day before Christmas, when the children had their Christmas tree and gifts distributed, had their hearts gladdened as well as did the children, in seeing the little ones made so happy. Our town is divided in districts which are visited each year in June, when every resident is supposed to be called upon to give a donation to this worthy object, one that touches every heart, the orphan child.

During the month of January we have been called to part with one of our very efficient workers, Mrs. Clara S. Peck. She was not a member of our board of managers, but a worker in the Society nevertheless, and we shall miss her smiling face, willing hands and encouraging words, but we know she has gone to her reward on high, and to join a large number of our band who have gone on before. Mr. James G. Moffet, one of the life members for many years, and a liberal contributor, also Mrs. Emma C. Kipp, a lover of the work have passed away within a few weeks. Have we not, dear readers, an incentive for still more faithful work while we have the opportunity?

The collectors are with us to-day as well as the board of managers, whom we welcome and hope they will become each year more interested and vigilant in the work given us to do, remembering the blessed promise "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these little ones ye did it unto me."

Respectfully submitted,
F. C. CARL,
Sec.

Anna C. Kip.

DIED.—At Christ church rectory, on Tuesday, February 1, ANNA C. KIP, widow of Leonard W. Kip, Esq., late of this city, in her 85th year.

At the funeral service her pastor, the Rev. H. W. Ballentine, preached on the "Victory of Faith," as illustrated in the life and death of this venerable servant of God. Rarely indeed is it permitted us to know a disciple of the Master, who from youth to old age was such "an example of the believers in word, in conversation, in charity, in faith, in purity." She loved everything upon which the good Lord has been pleased to place his name—his Word, his house, his day, his people. She gave with liberal hand to the poor and cause of religion, and rejoiced that one of her sons was a devoted missionary to the heathen. His faith grew brighter and stronger as the end drew near, and with mind unclouded and in perfect peace, she welcomed the summons to depart. "Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

The Postmastership.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CITIZEN:

Sir: The editorial which appeared in your last issue, referring to the anticipated change in the Postmastership should be deprecated by every fair-minded citizen. Were the case reversed—the present incumbent a Democrat and the aspirant a Republican, although the Democrat had given as good satisfaction and service as Mr. Dodd—no objection would be raised regarding a change of administration.

It is very unbecoming for an editor of a local paper, "devoted to the interests of the town," to state that a "tenth-rate man" was to be appointed, it being well known who the gentleman referred to was. Upon what he bases his average is very obscure, except it be that in his opinion all but Republicans are "tenth-rate." Mr. A. L. Brown, the newly appointed Postmaster, is a Democrat, a gentleman of good character, fully competent to fill the office, and will endeavor to give the citizens of Bloomfield as good service as the retiring Postmaster, who beyond question will always be kindly remembered and honored for his faithful services. The "exhibition" of the installation of a Democratic Postmaster in Bloomfield will take place as advertised, and it is to be hoped the author of the editorial mentioned will occupy a "front seat" as "chief mourner."

A Pleasant Evening.

On Friday evening of last week, a party of young friends were received at the residence of Mr. Geo. Batzle to celebrate the birthday of their daughter Maria.

A most enjoyable evening was spent in singing, playing of games, etc. The rendering of solos on the violin by one of the gentlemen showed plainly that he was master of the instrument. Also an instrumental quartette entitled "Entre Nous" by "The Four Brothers" was received with great applause, while the recitations, which were carefully selected, could not have been better delivered.

A collation was served, after which the amusements of the evening were continued until a late hour.

BLOOMFIELD BRIEF LOCALS.

—There are about twenty wheelmen in Bloomfield some of whom are moving for a local organization.

—The Young Men's Union of the Catholic church will give a dramatic entertainment in the Hall on State street on the evening of February 23d.

—Petitions have been received by the D. L. & W. R. E. Co., from citizens of East Orange, to make a station and build a depot at the Grove street crossing of the Bloomfield branch of the road.

—Mr. Marshall P. Wilder the humorist is to appear at the Glen Ridge Club's entertainment next week, which will occur on Friday evening, instead of on Wednesday as usual.

—A beautiful marble font has just been placed in the Episcopal Church. The bowl has the symbolic letters and the legend "One Lord, One Faith, One Baptism." It is a memorial of Marie, Louis and Ethel Genin, three loved children who were "early called," and is a most appropriate gift. The font was made at the establishment of J. & R. Lamb, of New York, who are justly celebrated for the artistic beauty and perfect finish of their work.

A Union Missionary Meeting of the Presbyterian churches of Bloomfield was held on Tuesday last. The afternoon meeting was in Westminster church, and was specially interesting to children. Mrs. Bainbridge, of Brooklyn, made the principal address, and proved to be a very delightful speaker. Some of the young ladies were dressed in costumes worn in lands Mrs. Bainbridge had visited. The evening meeting, which took place in the Sunday-School room of the First church, was largely attended. Those who had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Bainbridge will not soon forget the touching manner in which she depicted the miseries of a heathen woman's life.

—The Arcadian Dramatic Association will produce "Doing for the Best" and "Who's Who?" under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Church, East Orange, at the hall of Franklin District School, on Thursday and Friday evenings, Feb. 17th and 18th. They will be assisted by Frank Brothers and the Euterpean Society. Tickets are 35 cents.

—Mr. Adam L. Brown having received the endorsement of the Democratic Committee, local, county and State, has been appointed by the President to succeed Postmaster Horace Dodd, whose term expired Feb. 5th. Upon being confirmed by the Senate Mr. Brown will assume the duties of the office. His plans as to the details of the office, location, etc., have not yet been made.

—To the observation that a large proportion of the sidewalks of our town has, by the mellow-dramatic weather of the past weeks, been rendered well-nigh deplorable, every one will file a "yes" verdict—but that alone will not mend the situation. Will not our town committee be up and doing something in this matter?

—The Watessing Library Association is moving along excellently. They have the offer from a gentleman of wealth, of Glen Ridge, to trade off any lot suitable for a library building in Watessing for Glen Ridge property and then receive it as a present from him.

—No man need expect to run for town committee this year who is not in favor of improving our wretched sidewalks—the stone walks that have been laid and those that ought to be. Away with the "subterranean system" of laying walks, or let us have good ones!

—Our readers will note the advertisement of Newport & Heatt, the new lumber firm of Spruce street. They intend to considerably enlarge the business, and will keep full stocks of timber, lumber and mason's materials at the lowest prices. Give them a call.

—The first concert by the J. W. Berry Concert Co., will be given at Parochial Hall, State street, Bloomfield, on Tuesday, Feb. 15, 1887, introducing M. E. Saville, Jones and her famous quartette from New York. Tickets 35 cents.

—As will be seen by advertisement, the Vestry of Christ church, Liberty street, are offering their school building for sale and removal. Parties who contemplate the erection of a dwelling will do well to examine the property.

—Rev. Mr. Rudolph, of Elizabeth, on the last previous Sunday evening addressed a large gathering of Sunday school workers at the German church upon the subject: "Practical hints in Sunday school work."

—Rev. Dr. Hauser, the house-father of the Theological Seminary has resigned his charge as pastor of a church in Brooklyn and will henceforth devote his whole time and talents to the cause of the Seminary.

—It is stated upon good authority that a large tract of land near the Watessing Depot has been purchased by a parlor-car manufacturing firm, who intend erecting extensive car-shops on the premises.

—The monthly meeting of the Bloomfield Building and Loan Association takes place on Monday evening next at the room of the Association, over the Post Office.

—The regular meeting of the Essex County Building and Loan Association will be held next Tuesday evening at Unangst's Hall.

Montclair.

—The Township Committee, at their regular meeting Tuesday evening, occupied the time in closing up the business of their year. F. M. Wheeler, representing Turner, Clark & Rawson, of Connecticut, and John Burns a local contractor, revised their propositions for the introduction of water, but no action was taken.

Orange.

—Daniel Allen, a well known journeyman carpenter, dropped dead at his home near Rosedale Cemetery, Tuesday morning. When he arose he appeared to be in his usual health and had been out and about the house for an hour. After breakfast he sat in his chair waiting for his wife to put up his dinner to be taken to his work when he suddenly threw up his arms, his head dropped on his breast and he was dead. The deceased was forty-seven years of age and leaves a wife and three children. He was a veteran of the late war.

—The old-time spelling-schools were revived Tuesday night by the St. Mark's Guild. A large class of ladies and gentlemen wrestled with orthography to the edification of a good-sized audience.

D., First Vice President; Bayard Stockton, Secretary, and Crowell Marsh, Treasurer. Subscriptions will soon be solicited.

Edward Clark, a laborer on the farm of Asa Rudderow, at Blackwood, was placed on trial in the Camden Court last Monday on a charge of manslaughter. On the 27th of last October, while about to leave his employer's house to shoot rabbits the gun he held under his arm was discharged and the load entered the groin of Charles Cutler, a sixteen-year-old lad, also employed on the farm, causing his death in a few days. Clark claims that the gun was accidentally discharged and the preponderance of testimony yesterday was in his favor.

Jas. A. Bradley, who founded the flourishing temperance town of Asbury Park, down on the sands of New Jersey, boards at a hotel in New York city. One evening, when he returned to the hotel, the clerk said: "Mr. Bradley, here is present some one has sent you." The package produced by the clerk contained two bottles of brandy. Mr. Bradley refused to take the bottles to his room, and requested the clerk to send them to one of the hospitals. His order was carried out the next day. About a week later it was found that the brandy had been sent to a lesser Mr. Bradley, a guest at the hotel, whom the clerk had overlooked. The temperance Mr. Bradley says the other Mr. Bradley was well-pleased when what he believed was a theft turned out to have been an act of philanthropy.

The time for the Annual Meeting of citizens for the discussion of public questions and to make appropriations for the coming year is near at hand. After Inventory Now for Genuine Bargains.

We thought to contract for extra space to advertise a "Sale" for next week that would be the "est" or "superlative degree" of all the various kinds of "Sales" that have recently become fashionable. An estimate of doing so in "The Daily Advertiser," "The Evening News," "The Newark Journal," "The Sunday Call," "Horse Cars" and various other medium would aggregate some $500 to $600 per day.

Now we have decided instead to say in our usual yearly space to our friends and customers that Commencing Monday Morning Jan. 31st. We will give directly to them the full benefit of this unexpended amount in addition to the Very Low Prices we proposed making, by making Correspondingly Lower Prices on Silks, Velvets, Morning Goods, Dress Goods, Hosiery, Fancy Goods, Gloves, Underwear, Blankets, Flannels, Housekeeping Goods &c. all of which will be sold at the lowest prices ever named in Newark. Prudent buyers should read this carefully and avail themselves of the opportunity.
